ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This final rule adopts, without change, an interim final rule published in the Federal Register on November 17, 2017, which affirmed a May 2, 2016, final rule amending Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) regulations to reflect a nomenclature change in the title of certain personnel hired by VA's Veteran Readiness and Employment (VR&E) Service, previously known as Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment Service. The preamble to the interim final rule corrected

DATES: This rule is effective July 18, 2023.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Allison Bernheimer, Senior Policy Analyst, Veteran Readiness and Employment Service (28), Veterans Benefits Administration, Department of Veterans Affairs, 810 Vermont Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20420, (202) 461–9600. (This is not a toll-free telephone number.)

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On May 2, 2016, VA published a final rule (referred to as “May 2016 final rule” or “final rule”) in the Federal Register at 81 FR 26130, amending its regulations to reflect a nomenclature change in the title of certain personnel hired by VA's VR&E Program. On November 17, 2017, VA published an interim final rule (referred to as “November 2017 interim final rule” or “interim final rule”) in the Federal Register at 82 FR 54295 affirming the May 2016 final rule. In the preamble to the November 2017 interim final rule, VA corrected some inaccurate statements and citations in the preamble of the May 2016 final rule and provided additional explanation of the basis for the rule. Although the interim final rule was effective upon publication, VA provided a 30-day comment period, which ended on December 18, 2017.

VA received a multitude of comments, including comments on the May 2016 final rule, from one individual. The Federal Circuit found that promulgating the rule was not arbitrary, capricious, or a violation of law, and that VA had good cause to expedite implementation of the rule. *Conyers v.
