SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background: The 2025 report will be the second of five reports that section 202A(g)(2) of the USMCA Implementation Act (19 U.S.C. 4532(g)(2)) requires that the Commission provide on the USMCA automotive rules of origin (ROOs) and their impact on the U.S. economy, effect on U.S. competitiveness, and relevancy considering recent technology changes. In particular, the USMCA Implementation Act requires that the Commission report on the following:

(1) The economic impact of the USMCA automotive ROOs on U.S. gross domestic product (GDP); U.S. exports and imports; U.S. aggregate employment and employment opportunities; production, investment, use of productive facilities, and profit levels in the U.S. automotive industries and other pertinent industries; wages and employment of workers in the U.S. automotive sector; and the interests of U.S. consumers.

(2) The operation of the ROOs and their effects on the competitiveness of the United States with respect to production and trade in automotive goods, taking into account developments in technology, production processes, or other related matters.

(3) Whether the ROOs are relevant in light of technological changes in the United States.

(4) Such other matters as the Commission considers relevant to the economic impact of the ROOs, including prices, sales, inventories, patterns of demand, capital investment, obsolescence of equipment, and diversification of production in the United States.

As part of this investigation, the Commission intends to conduct a survey, and will post the associated questionnaire on its website at a later date. The Commission also intends to hold a public hearing in connection with this investigation and will announce the hearing details at a later date.

The USMCA Implementation Act requires that the Commission transmit its report on July 1, 2025, two years following submission of its previous report, USMCA Automotive Rules of Origin: Economic Impact and Operation, 2023 Report. The Commission is required to submit reports on the USMCA automotive ROOs every two years until 2031, for a total of five reports.

By order of the Commission.

Issued: November 15, 2023.

Lisa Barton,

Secretary to the Commission.
