SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

The Applicable Statute and Regulations

Unless otherwise indicated, all citations to the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), are references to the provisions in effect as of January 1, 1995, the effective date of the amendments made to the Act by the Uruguay Round Agreements Act. In addition, unless otherwise indicated, all citations to the Department's regulations are to the regulations as codified at 19 CFR part 351 (2001).

Background

On March 12, 2001, the Department received a petition from Great Eastern Mussel Farms, Inc. (Great Eastern) alleging that live processed blue mussels from Canada were being sold, or were likely to be sold, in the United States at less than fair value. On April 6, 2001, the Department initiated an antidumping investigation of live processed blue mussels from Canada for the period April 1, 2000 through March 31, 2002 in order to determine whether merchandise imported into the United States is being sold at dumped prices. On October 18, 2001, the Department published in the Federal Register a notice of preliminary determination of sales at less than fair. See Notice of Preliminary Determination of Sales at Less Than Fair Value and Postponement of Final Determination: Live Processed Blue Mussels from, 66 FR 52888 (October 18, 2001). On January 7, 2002, Great Eastern withdrew its petition citing improved market conditions.

Termination of the Antidumping Investigation

Pursuant to 19 CFR 351.207(b)(1), the Department may terminate an investigation upon withdrawal of the petition by the petitioner provided that the termination of the investigation is in the public interest. We contacted all interested parties to the investigation and notified them in writing of our intent to terminate the investigation and informed them that they had seven days in which to comment on this termination. No domestic interested party has objected to termination of this investigation. As no domestic interested party objects to this termination and the Department is not aware of evidence to the contrary, the Department finds that termination of this investigation is in the public interest. As such, we are terminating this antidumping investigation and will issue instructions directly to the U.S. Customs Service to terminate the suspension of subject merchandise.

This notice serves as a reminder to parties subject to administrative protective order (APO) of their responsibility concerning the disposition of proprietary information disclosed under APO in accordance with 19 CFR 351.305(a)(3). Timely written notification of the return or destruction of APO materials or conversion to judicial protective order is hereby requested. Failure to comply with the regulations and the terms of an APO is a sanctionable violation.

This determination and notice are in accordance with section 734(a) of the Act and section 19 CFR 351.207(b) of the Department's regulations.

Applications for Duty-Free Entry of Scientific Instruments

Pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Educational, Scientific and Cultural Materials Importation Act of 1966 (Pub. L. 89-651; 80 Stat. 897; 15 CFR part 301), we invite comments on the question of whether instruments of equivalent scientific value, for the purposes for which the instruments shown below are intended to be used, are being manufactured in the United States.

Comments must comply with 15 CFR 301.5(a)(3) and (4) of the regulations and be filed within 20 days with the Statutory Import Programs Staff, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, DC 20230. Applications may be examined between 8:30 A.M. and 5 P.M. in Suite 4100W, U.S. Department of Commerce, Franklin Court Building, 1099 14th Street, NW, Washington, DC.

Docket Number: 01-023. Applicant: University of Georgia, 151 Barrow Hall, Electron Microscopy Laboratory, Athens, GA 30602-2403. Instrument: Electron Microscope, Model Tecnai 20. Manufacturer: FEI Company, The Netherlands. Intended Use: The instrument is intended to be used to study the structure of biological materials in three dimensions including components of cells such as organelles or filaments, whole cells (i.e. bacteria), large molecules and crystals. The general goal of these investigations is to achieve a detailed understanding of the 3-dimensional structure of some cellular component, which in turn can be used to increase understanding of the function of that component. In addition, the instrument will be used in the courses: CBIO(BIOL) 3410L. Laboratory in Cellular and Developmental Biology, (CBIO)BIOL 5050L/7050L. Electron Microscopy Laboratory, and CBIO 8050-8050L. Techniques in Modern Microscopy. Application accepted by Commissioner of Customs: October 22, 2001.

Docket Number: 01-025. Applicant: University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, 207 Henry Administration Building, 506 South Wright Street, Urbana, IL 61801. Instrument: QPix Colony Picker with Gridding and Re-arraying packages. Manufacturer: Genetix Limited, United Kingdom. Intended Use: The instrument is a robot that performs steps of selecting certain cells amongst a large number of others and transferring them to other devices for further investigation. It is intended to be used for research and education of genomics including the study of honey bees, cattle and salmonella. Application accepted by Commissioner of Customs: November 23, 2001.
