

The company reports that Sappi Fine Paper North America purchased Potlatch Corporation, Minnesota Pulp and Paper Division on May 13, 2002. Information shows that employees separated from Potlatch after the May 13, 2002 selling date, were separated as employees of Sappi Fine Paper and, therefore, were not found eligible for trade adjustment assistance under the current certification covering Potlatch employees.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Potlatch Corporation, Minnesota, Pulp and Paper Division, who were adversely affected by increased imports.

Accordingly, the Department is amended the certification determination to properly reflect this matter.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-39,255 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Potlatch Corporation, Sappi Fine Paper North America, Honeywell Corporation, Minnesota Pulp and Paper Division, Brainerd, Minnesota who become totally or partially separated from employment on or after May 1, 2000, through February 20, 2004, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 26th day of September, 2002.

Linda G. Poole,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

White Mountain Stitching Company, Littleton, NH; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on July 29, 2002, applicable to workers of White Mountain Stitching Company, Littleton, New Hampshire. The notice was published in the Federal Register on August 9, 2002 (67 FR 51870).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers were engaged in the production of wallets and handbags.

New information provided by the State shows that workers separated from employment at White Mountain Stitching Company had their wages reported under a separate unemployment insurance (UI) tax account for ADP Total Source III, Diamond Bar, California.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to properly reflect this matter.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of White Mountain Stitching Company who were adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-41,392 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of White Mountain Stitching Company, Littleton, New Hampshire, including those whose wages are reported to ADP Total Source III, Diamond Bar, California, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after March 21, 2001, through July 29, 2004, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC this 9th day of October, 2002.

Linda G. Poole,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.
