[Docket No. ER02-984-001]

Duke Energy Enterprise, LLC; Notice of Filing

March 18, 2002.

Take notice that on March 14, 2002, Duke Energy Enterprise, LLC (Duke Enterprise) tendered for filing with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (Commission) pursuant to section 205 of the Federal Power Act revisions to its FERC Electric Tariff No. 1.

Duke Enterprise renews its request, pursuant to Section 35.11 of the Commission's regulations, that the Commission waive the 60-day minimum notice requirement under Section 35.3(a) of its regulations and grant an effective date for this application of February 8, 2002.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing should file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. All such motions or protests should be filed on or before the comment date, and, to the extent applicable, must be served on the applicant and on any other person designated on the official service list. This filing is available for review at the Commission or may be viewed on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the "RIMS" link, select "Docket#" and follow the instructions (call 202-208-2222 for assistance). Protests and interventions may be filed electronically via the Internet in lieu of paper; see 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's Web site under the "e-Filing" link. Comment Date: March 28, 2002.

Duke Energy Sandersville, LLC; Notice of Filing

March 18, 2002.

Take notice that on March 14, 2002, Duke Energy Sandersville, LLC (Duke Sandersville) tendered for filing pursuant to section 205 of the Federal Power Act a proposed revision to its FERC Electric Tariff No. 1.

Duke Sandersville seeks authority to sell energy and capacity, as well as ancillary services, at market-based rates, together with certain waivers and preapprovals. Duke Sandersville also seeks authority to sell, assign, or transfer transmission rights that it may acquire in the course of its marketing activities. Duke Sandersville requests an effective date of April 15, 2002, which is 60 days from the original filing date of its proposed rate schedules.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing should file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. All such motions or protests should be filed on or before the comment date, and, to the extent applicable, must be served on the applicant and on any other person designated on the official service list.

This filing is available for review at the Commission or may be viewed on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the "RIMS" link, select "Docket#" and follow the instructions (call 202-208-2222 for assistance). El Paso Natural Gas Company; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

March 19, 2002.

Take notice that on March 14, 2002, El Paso Natural Gas Company (EPNG) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Second Revised Volume No. 1-A, the following tariff sheets, to become effective April 14, 2002:

Original Sheet No. 271A

First Revised Original Sheet No. 290A

EPNG states that the proposed tariff provision indicates EPNG's agreement to binding arbitration of a dispute under certain circumstances if a shipper is a foreign government, an agency of a foreign government, or an entity created by them to conduct business.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings.
