

19(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Act²⁶ and Rule 19b-4(f)(6)²⁷ thereunder.

A proposed rule change filed under Rule 19b-4(f)(6)²⁸ normally does not become operative prior to 30 days after the date of the filing. However, pursuant to Rule 19b-4(f)(6)(iii),²⁹ the Commission may designate a shorter time if such action is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest. The Exchange has asked the Commission to waive the 30-day operative delay so that the proposal may become operative immediately upon filing. The Commission believes that waiving the 30-day operative delay is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest.³⁰ The Exchange represents that the proposal “does not impact either the members of NASDAQ OMX PHLX, Inc. or the public” and only “impacts the administrative functions of the Exchange.”³¹ Additionally, the Commission notes that the Exchange represents that the proposed Certificate of Formation, LLC Agreement, and By-Laws reflect all of the current rights and obligations of the members and owners of the Exchange, and that the proposed LLC Agreement is consistent in form and scope with the limited liability company agreement of another self-regulatory organization previously approved by the Commission.³² Accordingly, the Commission waives the 30-day operative delay requirement and designates the proposed rule change to be operative on September 1, 2010.

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission summarily may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

[Release No. 34-62798; File No. SR-FINRA-2010-032]

Self-Regulatory Organizations; Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc.; Notice of Designation of a Longer Period for Commission Action on Proposed Rule Change Relating to Clearly Erroneous Transactions

August 30, 2010.

On June 17, 2010, the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. (“FINRA”) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”), pursuant to Section 19(b)(1)¹ of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Act”),² and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,³ a proposed rule change to amend its rules to set forth clearer standards and curtail its discretion with respect to breaking erroneous trades.

Section 19(b)(2) of the Act⁴ provides that within thirty-five days of the publication of notice of the filing of a proposed rule change, or within such longer period as the Commission may designate up to ninety days of such date if it finds such longer period to be appropriate and publishes its reasons for so finding, the Commission shall either approve the proposed rule change or institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule change should be disapproved. The 35th day for this filing was August 2, 2010.⁵ The Commission had received an extension of time from FINRA until August 16, 2010.⁶ The Commission extended this time period until August 30, 2010.⁷ The Commission is again extending this time period.

The Commission finds it appropriate to designate a longer period within which to take action on the proposed rule change so that it has sufficient time to consider this proposed rule change, relating to the amendment of clearly erroneous execution rules to provide greater transparency and certainty to the process of breaking trades, and the comment letters that have been submitted in connection with the filing.
