

public notice announcing that it will hold a public forum on December 1, 2000 from 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. in its Commission Meeting Room. All members of the public are invited to attend, and no advance notice of participation is required. The purpose of the forum is to gather information from the public regarding what the Federal Communications Commission can do to improve its processes and procedures for preparing for the World Radiocommunication Conference in 2003.

Synopsis

The Commission will hold a public forum to solicit views on improving its preparation process for the next World Radiocommunication Conference (WRC-2003). The forum will take place on December 1, 2000 from 3:00 p.m. until 5:00 p.m. in the Commission Meeting Room, Federal Communications Commission, 445 12th Street, SW., Washington, DC 20554. The public is invited to attend. No advance notice of participation is required.

The World Radiocommunication Conferences meet to review and amend the international radio regulations that govern the allocation and use of global and regional spectrum. The Commission seeks input from the public on how to proceed for WRC-2003. The Commission will use the information gathered at this public forum to learn what aspects of the FCC process have been successful in the past and what areas need refinement. The agenda for the forum is attached.

For further information, contact John Giusti at 202-418-1407, Julie Garcia at 202-418-0763, or Julie Buchanan at 202-418-0783.
