SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATIONEconomic Injury Disaster Loans as a Result of the September 11, 2001 Terrorist Attacks

ACTION: Notice of Extension of Application Deadline.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

George Camp, Supervisory Program Analyst, Office of Disaster Assistance, 202-205-6734.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In response to the President's major disaster declarations with respect to the World Trade Center and the Pentagon and the widespread economic impact caused by the terrorist attacks and the related Federal actions taken directly thereafter, the SBA revised its disaster loan regulations on October 22, 2001. Under the revised regulations, SBA can make economic injury disaster loans (EIDL) to eligible small business concerns outside the declared disaster areas that suffered substantial economic injury as a direct result of the destruction of the World Trade Center or the damage to the Pentagon on September 11, 2001, or as a direct result of any related Federal action taken between September 11, 2001 and October 22, 2001.

As authorized by 13 CFR 123.605, SBA is extending the application deadline for good cause. SBA is extending the deadline to make it consistent with the deadlines established by the disaster declarations made as a result of the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon. Accordingly, with this Notice, the SBA extends the filing deadline for expanded economic injury disaster loans under this disaster program from May 22, 2002 to September 30, 2002.

Applications for economic injury disaster loans may be obtained and filed at the SBA disaster office servicing the applicant's state.
