

voluntary basis. The burden includes time spent to: (1) review the entry criteria, definitions, instructions and application; (2) access current (within the last ten years) information about their experience with environmental reviews of transportation projects; and (3) enter the information on the form, print it and mail it.

Burden means the total time, effort, or financial resources expended by persons to generate, maintain, retain, or disclose or provide information to or for a Federal agency. This includes the time needed to review instructions; develop, acquire, install, and utilize technology and systems for the purpose of collecting, validating, and verifying information, processing and maintaining information, and disclosing and providing information and transmitting information.

Likely Respondents: Current and future members of the National Roster of Environmental Dispute Resolution and Consensus Building Professionals.

Estimated Number of Respondents (first year): 80.

Estimated Number of New Respondents (per year for succeeding year): 10.

Proposed Frequency of Response: one, with voluntary update.

Respondent Time Burden Estimates

Estimate Time per Response: 2.33 hours.

Estimated Number of Updates: 1, for approximately half of previous respondents.

Estimated Time for Update: .25 hours.

Estimated Total First Year Burden: 187 hours (2.33 × 80 respondents).

Estimated Total Second Year Burden: 33 hours (23 hours for 10 new respondents + 10 hours for updates by 40 previous respondents).

Estimated Total Third Year Burden: 34.25 hours (23 hours for 10 new respondents + 11.25 hours for updates by 45 previous respondents).

Respondent Cost Burden Estimates

It is not anticipated that there will be capital or start-up costs (respondents will use the same computer equipment to access the sub-roster application as was used for their National Roster of ECR Practitioner application or respondents can request an application by phone or mail; applications are submitted through US Postal Service.)
