

Kern River states that the purpose of this filing is to propose certain modifications to section 15 of the General Terms and Conditions of Kern River's tariff, "Capacity Release Program," and to the forms of Exhibits "RS" and "RP" pertaining to released and replacement transportation service agreements, respectively. Specifically, Kern River states that it is proposing: (1) to clarify Kern River's current policies and procedures pertaining to both temporary and permanent capacity releases; and (2) to address contingencies and shipper-defined bid evaluation methodologies for released capacity.

Kern River states that it has served a copy of this filing upon its customers and interested state regulatory commissions.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed in accordance with the provisions of Section 154.210 of the Commission's regulations (18 CFR 154.210). Anyone filing an intervention or protest must serve a copy of that document on the Applicant. Anyone filing an intervention or protest on or before the intervention or protest date need not serve motions to intervene or protests on persons other than the Applicant.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.
