SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) is currently developing a new, flexible framework for animal disease traceability in the United States. In keeping with its commitment to partnering with States, Tribal Nations, and industry to address many of the details of the infrastructure of this program, including possible regulations, the USDA took the initial step of hosting a State/Tribal forum on animal disease traceability in Kansas City, MO, on March 18 and 19, 2010. Information on the proceedings of the State/Tribal forum is available to the public for review and comment at (<http://www.aphis.usda.gov/traceability/forum/index.shtml>). In addition, we hosted three public meetings to discuss animal disease traceability. The meetings took place in Kansas City, MO, Riverdale, MD, and Denver, CO, on May 11, May 13, and May 17, 2010, respectively. Tentative topics to be discussed at the upcoming meetings include:
