

section 113(b) of the Clean Air Act ("CAA"), 42 U.S.C. 7413(b) (1983), amended by, 42 U.S.C. 7413(b) (Supp. 1991) for alleged CAA violations at Navajo's two refineries in Artesia and Lovington, New Mexico, and at Montana Refining's refinery in Great Falls, Montana.

Under the settlement, Navajo and Montana Refining will implement innovative pollution control technologies to greatly reduce emissions of nitrogen oxides ("NO<sub>x</sub>") and sulfur dioxide ("SO<sub>2</sub>") from refinery process units and they will adopt facility-wide enhanced monitoring and fugitive emission control programs. In addition, Navajo and Montana Refining will pay a civil penalty of $400,000 for settlement of the claims in the United States' complaint, and Navajo will pay $350,000 for settlement of claims raised by the State of New Mexico in two compliance orders that New Mexico issued to Navajo in May and July of 2001. Navajo also will perform environmentally beneficial projects totaling approximately $1.4 million. The States of New Mexico and Montana will join in this settlement as signatories to the Consent Decree.

The Department of Justice will receive for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of this publication comments relating to the Consent Decree. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General, Environment and Natural Resources Division, P.O. Box 7611, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20044-7611, and should refer to United States, et al., v. Navajo Refining Co., et al. D.J. Ref. 90-5-2-1-2228/1.

The Consent Decree may be examined at the Office of the United States Attorney, 201 3rd St., NW., Suite 900, Albuquerque, New Mexico, 87102, and at U.S. EPA Region 6, Fountain Place, 1445 Ross Avenue, Dallas, TX 75202. A copy of the Consent Decree may also be obtained by mail from the Consent Decree Library, P.O. Box 7611, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20044-7611. ### Notice of Lodging of Consent Decree Under Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act

Notice is hereby given that a consent decree in United States v. Sequa Corporation and John H. Thompson, C.A. No. 01-CV-4784 (E.D.Pa.), was lodged on September 20, 2001, with the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. This notice was previously published in the Federal Register on October 15, 2001 and the public was given 30 days to comment. No comments were received. However, because of severe disruption in the mail service, the United States is unable to conclude with certainty that any comments mailed in response to that notice would have been received. As a result, the United States is providing this opportunity for any persons who previously submitted comments to resubmit their comments as directed below.

The consent decree resolves the United States' claims against defendants Sequa Corporation ("Sequa") and John H. Thompson ("Thompson") with respect to past response costs incurred through September 30, 1999, pursuant to Section 107 of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 41 U.S.C. 9607. The costs were incurred in connection with the Dublin TCE Site, located in the Borough of Dublin, Bucks County, Pennsylvania. Defendant Thompson owns the Site property, or a portion thereof, and defendant Sequa conducted manufacturing activities at the Site, which became contaminated with trichloroethylene.

Under the consent decree, defendants will pay the United States $3,200,000 in reimbursement of past response costs incurred in connection with the Site. Said amount will be paid within thirty (30) days after entry of the consent decree by the Court.

The Department of Justice will receive, for a period of twenty (20) days from the date of this publication, comments relating to the proposed consent decree. Any persons who previously submitted comments should resubmit and address their comments to the Acting Assistant Attorney General for the Environment and Natural Resources Division, Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530, and should refer to United States v. Sequa Corporation and John H. Thompson, DOJ Reference No. 90-11-2-780. The comments should be faxed to the Acting Assistant Attorney General at 202/616-6583. Alternatively, the comments may be mailed to the Office of the United States Attorney, ATTN: Barbara Rowland, 615 Chestnut Street, Suite 1250, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19106.

The proposed consent decree may be examined at the Office of the United States Attorney, 615 Chestnut Street, Suite 1250, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19106; and the Region III Office of the Environmental Protection Agency, 1650 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. A copy of the proposed decree may be obtained by mail from the Department of Justice Consent Decree Library, PO Box 7611, Washington, DC 20044. In requesting a copy, please refer to the referenced case and enclose a check in the amount of $7.75 (.25 cents per page production costs), payable to the Consent Decree Library.

Fashion International A.D.M. Services, Inc. Scranton, Pennsylvania; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on June 7, 2001, applicable to workers of Fashion International located in Scranton, Pennsylvania. The notice was published in the Federal Register on June 27, 2001 (66 FR 34256).

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. Company information shows that worker separations occurred at A.D.M. Services, Inc. when it closed in March, 2001. A.D.M. Services provided designing services and markers supporting the production of men's sport coats and men's and ladies' blazers at Fashion International, Scranton, Pennsylvania which also closed in March, 2001. A.D.M. Services, Inc. workers were inadvertently omitted from the certification.
