Proposed Project

National Assessment of Health Care Services Provided in Homeless Shelters/ Soup Kitchens—New—Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), National Center for Infectious Diseases (NCID). This Proposed study will collect information for determining, on a national basis, what facilities homeless shelters or soup kitchens currently have and what services are currently offered that might be used to integrate hepatitis prevention activities.

There is one phase of data collection anticipated. This would occur in the Spring of 2002, and will consist of surveys of 200 centers of varying types. Telephone follow-up of initial respondents in the event clarification of responses is needed will be conducted. Respondents will be managers or designees of homeless shelters or soup kitchens. The total time involved to the
