SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

In accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552, and the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), Circular No. A–108, OMB proposes to create a new system of records for OMB titled, “OMB Freedom of Information Act and Privacy Act Requests System of Records, OMB/FOIAPA/01” (OMB FOIA/PA Requests System)."

The OMB FOIA/PA Requests System covers all information related to Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) or Privacy Act requests and information relating to other agencies' FOIA or Privacy Act requests received through the National FOIA Portal (www.foia.gov), email, hardcopy communications, and other authorized means. This system also covers information pertaining to any administrative appeals or litigation relating to FOIA or Privacy Act requests to OMB or to another agency.

II. Privacy Act

The Privacy Act embodies fair information practice principles in a statutory framework governing the means by which Federal Government agencies collect, maintain, use, and disseminate individuals' records. The Privacy Act applies to information that is maintained in a "system of records." A "system of records" is a group of any records under the control of an agency from which information is retrieved by the name of an individual or by some identifying number, symbol, or other identifying particular assigned to the individual. In the Privacy Act, an individual is defined to encompass U.S. citizens and lawful permanent residents. Additionally, the Judicial Redress Act of 2015 (JRA), 5 U.S.C. 552a note, provides citizens of designated foreign countries with certain rights of redress for intentional or willful disclosures of covered records, as defined by the JRA, except as otherwise permitted by the Privacy Act.

Under the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552a, OMB receives requests from individuals for access to their own records or information pertaining to them, as well as requests from individuals to amend records pertaining to them, requests from individuals for notification if a record pertains to them, or requests from individuals for an accounting of disclosures of records pertaining to them. OMB's Privacy Act Procedures can be found at 5 CFR 1302.

III. Freedom of Information Act

The FOIA provides a right of access to certain records and information Federal agencies maintain and control. Any agency, upon any request for records which (i) reasonably describes such records and (ii) is made in accordance with published rules stating the time, place, fees (if any), and procedures to be followed, shall make the records promptly available to any person. The FOIA does not apply to information that satisfies one of nine exemptions under 5 U.S.C. 552(b), unless disclosure is warranted under the foreseeable harm standard. Additionally, any reasonably segregable portion of a record shall be provided after deletion of the portions which are exempt under 5 U.S.C. 552(b).

Under the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. 552, OMB receives requests for records from "any person" within the meaning of the statute. OMB makes available records in accordance with OMB's FOIA Procedures which can be found at 5 CFR 1303.

IV. Other Agencies

OMB also engages in inter-agency consultations of these requests when necessary to comply with OMB's legal obligations under FOIA and the Privacy Act. Inter-agency consultations include requests for consultation between OMB and other agencies and entities, which include requests for consultation from other agencies to OMB and from OMB to other agencies and entities.

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(r), OMB has provided a report of this system of records to OMB and to Congress.
