RECORD SOURCE CATEGORIES:

These records contain information that is primarily obtained from the individual; offices of the Department of State; other government agencies, particularly the Department of Justice; court systems and administrative bodies; international commissions, organizations, and other mechanisms; previous employers; neighbors; security investigation reports; other employees or individuals having knowledge of the issue about which a legal opinion is requested or who are party to litigation or investigation.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

Legal Case Management Records may be disclosed to:

(a) The Department of Justice and other federal agencies in connection with facilitating defense of the Department in legal proceedings and analyzing legal issues;

(b) Federal, state, and foreign courts, tribunals, and adjudicatory bodies where relevant and necessary to legal proceedings;

(c) International courts, tribunals, commissions, organizations, and mechanisms where relevant and necessary to proceedings or inquiries;

(d) A party to a legal proceeding involving the Department, or the party's attorney or other designated representative where relevant and necessary to legal proceedings;

(e) A source, witness or subject, or an attorney or other designated representative of any source, witness or subject where relevant and necessary to legal proceedings;

(f) Federal agencies having statutory or other lawful authority to maintain such information where relevant and necessary to fulfill statutory responsibilities;

(g) Appropriate agencies, entities, and persons when (1) the Department of State suspects or has confirmed that there has been a breach of the system of records; (2) the Department of State has determined that as a result of the suspected or confirmed breach there is a risk of harm to individuals, the Department of State (including its information systems, programs, and operations), the Federal Government, or national security; and (3) the disclosure made to such agencies, entities, and persons is reasonably necessary to assist in connection with the Department of State efforts to respond to the suspected or confirmed breach or to prevent, minimize, or remedy such harm;

(h) Another Federal agency or Federal entity, when the Department of State determines that information from this system of records is reasonably necessary to assist the recipient agency or entity in (1) responding to a suspected or confirmed breach or (2) preventing, minimizing, or remedying the risk of harm to individuals, the recipient agency or entity (including its information systems, programs, and operations), the Federal Government, or national security, resulting from a suspected or confirmed breach;

(i) The Department may respond to federal, state, and local agency inquiries related to child support, alimony, bankruptcy, state tax lien, or similar issues;

(j) Pursuant to a court or agency order, the Department may disclose relevant information to private collection agencies, law firms and/or other individuals authorized to receive benefits under such order; and

(k) The Department may also publish certain information from this system of records in a Department-published annual digest and through other Department-controlled media when the Department reasonably believes that such publication will inform the public about its practice of international law. This may include, but is not limited to, information about cases, proceedings, and inquiries in which the Department participates or is involved.

The Department of State periodically publishes in the Federal Register its standard routine uses which apply to all of its Privacy Act systems of records. These notices appear in the form of a Prefatory Statement (published in Volume 73, Number 136, Public Notice 6290, on July 15, 2008). All of these standard routine uses apply to Legal Case Management Records, State-21.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORAGE OF RECORDS:

Records will be stored in both hard copy and electronic media. A description of standard Department of State policies concerning storage of electronic records is found in the Department's Foreign Affairs Manual (<https://fam.state.gov/FAM/05FAM/05FAM0440.html>). All hard copies of records containing personal information are maintained in secured file cabinets in restricted areas, access to which is limited to authorized personnel only.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR RETRIEVAL OF RECORDS:

Hardcopy by name, date, country, and/or subject; electronic by keyword or metadata.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR RETENTION AND DISPOSAL OF RECORDS:

Records maintained in this system of records are generally permanent and are retired to the Records Service Center one year after the close of the case. These records are retired and destroyed in accordance with published Department of State Records Disposition Schedules as approved by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA), and a complete list of the Department's schedules can be found on our Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) program's website (<https://foia.state.gov/Learn/RecordsDisposition.aspx>). More specific information may be obtained by writing to the following address: Director, Office of Information Programs and Services, A/GIS/IPS; SA-2, Department of State; 515 22nd Street NW; Washington, DC 20522-8100.

ADMINISTRATIVE, TECHNICAL, AND PHYSICAL SAFEGUARDS:

All users are given cyber security awareness training that covers the procedures for handling Sensitive but Unclassified information, including personally identifiable information (PII). Annual refresher training is mandatory. In addition, all Foreign Service and Civil Service employees and those Locally Engaged Staff who handle PII are required to take the Foreign Service Institute distance learning course instructing employees on privacy and security requirements, including the rules of behavior for handling PII and the potential consequences if it is handled improperly.

Access to the Department of State, its annexes and posts abroad is controlled by security guards and admission is limited to those individuals possessing a valid identification card or individuals under proper escort. While the majority of records covered in the Legal Case Management Records are electronic, all paper records containing personal information are maintained in secured file cabinets in restricted areas, access to which is limited to authorized personnel. Access to computerized files is password-protected and under the direct supervision of the system manager. The system manager has the capability of printing audit trails of access from the computer media, thereby permitting regular and ad hoc monitoring of computer usage. When it is determined that a user no longer needs access, the user account is disabled.

Before being granted access to Legal Case Management Records, a user must first be granted access to the Department of State computer system. Remote access to the Department of State network from non-Department owned systems is authorized only through a Department approved access program. Remote access to the network is configured with the authentication requirements contained in the Office of Management and Budget Circular Memorandum A-130. All Department of State employees and contractors with authorized access have undergone a background security investigation.

RECORD ACCESS PROCEDURES:

Individuals who wish to gain access to or to amend records pertaining to themselves should write to U.S. Department of State; Director, Office of Information Programs and Services; A/GIS/IPS; SA-2, Suite 8100; Washington, DC 20522-0208. The individual must specify that he or she wishes the Legal Case Management Records to be checked. SURFACE TRANSPORTATION BOARD

[Docket No. FD 36198 (Sub-No. 1)]

New Orleans Public Belt Railroad Corporation—Trackage Rights Exemption—Illinois Central Railroad Company

On May 21, 2018, New Orleans Public Belt Railroad Corporation (NOPB Corp.) filed a verified notice of exemption in Docket No. FD 36198 for trackage rights under the class exemption at 49 CFR 1180.2(d)(7)¹ and simultaneously filed a petition in this sub-docket to partially revoke the exemption to allow the trackage rights to expire on January 31, 2020. Notice of the exemption in Docket No. FD 36198 was served and published in the Federal Register on June 6, 2018 (83 FR 26,337), and became effective on June 20, 2018. This decision addresses NOPB Corp.'s petition to partially revoke the exemption.

As explained by NOPB Corp. in its verified notice of exemption in Docket No. FD 36198, pursuant to a September 16, 2016 temporary trackage rights agreement and subsequent amendment, dated December 28, 2016, NOPB Corp.'s predecessor obtained temporary overhead trackage rights on approximately 6.3 miles of Illinois Central Railroad Company (IC) rail line in New Orleans, La., for the purpose of interchanging traffic with Kansas City Southern Railway Company (KCS) on KCS trackage in New Orleans on a trial basis. See New Orleans Pub. Belt R.R.—Temp. Trackage Rights Exemption—III. Cent. R.R., FD 36067 (STB served Jan. 30, 2017); New Orleans Pub. Belt R.R.—Temp. Trackage Rights Exemption—III. Cent. R.R., FD 36067 (STB served Oct. 14, 2016). NOPB Corp. states that it acquired its predecessor's interest in the temporary trackage rights arrangement as part of the transaction authorized in New Orleans Public Belt Railroad—Acquisition & Operation Exemption—Public Belt Railroad Commission of New Orleans, FD 36149 (STB served Dec. 27, 2017).

NOPB Corp. states in its petition in this sub-docket that the temporary trackage rights were scheduled to expire on January 31, 2018, but NOPB Corp. and IC entered into a second amendment to the temporary trackage rights agreement, dated January 31, 2018, which further extended the
