

and education. The role of the Council is to advise the President and the Secretary of the Treasury on means to promote and enhance individuals' and families' financial capability.

In accordance with section 10(a) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act, 5 U.S.C. App. 2 and the regulations thereunder, Dubis Correal, Designated Federal Officer of the Council, has ordered publication of this notice that the Council will convene its first meeting on November 30, 2010, in the Cash Room in the Main Treasury Building, 1500 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW., Washington, DC beginning at 2 p.m. Eastern Time. The meeting will be open to the public. Because the meeting will be held in a secured facility, members of the public who plan to attend the meeting must RSVP with their name as shown on a government-issued ID, organization represented (if any), phone number, date of birth, Social Security number and country of citizenship (if other than U.S.). To register, please go to <http://www.treasury.gov/ofe> and click on the President's Advisory Council on Financial Capability or call (202) 622-5770 by 5 p.m. Eastern Time on November 23, 2010. For entry into the Main Treasury Building on the date of the meeting, attendees must present a government-issued ID, such as a driver's license or passport, which includes a photo and date of birth.

The purpose of this meeting is to introduce the members of the Council and discuss general organizational matters and strategic areas of focus, including providing recommendations to the Administration on means to effectively implement the Federal Financial Literacy and Education Commission's National Strategy for Financial Literacy 2010. Representatives of the Financial Literacy and Education Commission will also be in attendance to present the Strategy to the Council.

Dated: October 29, 2010.

Alastair Fitzpayne,

Executive Secretary, U.S. Department of the Treasury.
