

directed by the General Counsel. NCLID provides legal services in connection with complex litigation or anticipated complex litigation by or against the Department. Such litigation may include cases for which other OGC divisions or regional offices request NCLID participation, cases spanning multiple OGC divisions or regional offices, or cases outside the scope of other OGC divisions or regional offices. NCLID administers the OGC-wide e-discovery program and coordinates the use of e-discovery technology with agencies and offices within the Department. NCLID will also conduct internal investigations at the request of the Secretary, Deputy Secretary, or General Counsel.

10. Public Health Division (Ph.D.). Ph.D. provides legal services to all Public Health Service agencies (except to FDA) and their programs, including the Office of the Surgeon General and the Commissioned Corps of the U.S. Public Health Service. The represented Public Health Service agencies include, but are not limited to: (i) the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Health, and its various programs; (ii) the Office of the Secretary's Office of Minority Health; (iii) the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention; (iv) the National Institutes of Health; (v) the Health Resources and Services Administration; (vi) the Indian Health Service; (vii) the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration; (viii) the Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality, (ix) the Administration for Strategic Preparedness and Response, and (x) the Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry.

Subsection C. Functions and Responsibilities of the OGC Regional Offices

There are four OGC Regional Offices, each led by a Chief Counsel. Regional offices within OGC provide a full range of legal services, subject to the professional supervision and direction of the General Counsel and the designated Deputy General Counsel. This includes providing legal advice and representation in administrative and judicial litigation regarding programs operated by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, the Administration for Children and Families, the Administration for Community Living, and Public Health Service agencies including the Indian Health Service, the Health Resources and Services Administration, the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention; and providing legal advice and representation in administrative and judicial litigation relating to business management activities and administrative operations, such as employment and labor relations, information disclosure and privacy, federal tort claims, and suspensions, disallowances, and other recoveries of payments made under HHS programs, of HHS components operating in their regions.

The HHS regional offices are located in the following cities and cover all states and territories of the United States, as well as three independent states in the Pacific.

1. OGC Region 1—Philadelphia.
2. OGC Region 2—Atlanta.
3. OGC Region 3—Kansas City (MO).
4. OGC Region 4—Denver.
