

conjunction with temperature depth data can be used to validate oceanographic and habitat models to produce oceanographic and species density forecasts for fishers. These species-specific density forecast can be used as a tool while fishing to maximize efficiency and avoid limited stocks.

By collecting these data, we are improving the data available to support improved understanding of population, ecosystem, and fishery dynamics in the northeast region. These improved understandings help the Northeast Fisheries Science Center inform management so they can meet the standards laid out in the Magnuson Stevens Act. Without working with the fishing industry to collect these data, we are severely restricting our access to the best available data to support needed research that informs management decisions.

II. Method of Collection

There will be an onboarding paper registration process consisting of filling out and signing a resume document, data waiver, and non-disclosure agreement that can be mailed or faxed to the Northeast Fisheries Science Center (NEFSC) Cooperative Research Branch.

Fishery dependent data outside of temperature depth data will be collected electronically on a dedicated laptop using the NEFSC Fisheries Logbook Data Reporting Software (FLDRS). The data collected is encrypted and is either wirelessly transmitted via Vessel Electronic Reporting Web Portal or VMS to the NEFSC or manually collected routinely by Cooperative Research Staff.

Temperature and Depth (TD) data is collected opportunistically and dependent on fisher interest. The TD data is routinely retrieved from the vessel manually by Cooperative Research Branch staff.

Data can be viewed, uploaded, downloaded, and edited by the vessel owner and vessel owner approved representatives on a secure web-based application called the Vessel Electronic Reporting Web Portal (VERS).
