BILLING CODE 4410–29–P

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

[CPCLO Order No. 005–2023]

Privacy Act of 1974; Systems of Records

AGENCY: Department of Justice.

ACTION: Notice of a new system of records.

SUMMARY: Pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974 and Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular No. A–108, notice is hereby given that the United States Department of Justice (DOJ or Department) proposes to develop a new system of records titled National Law Enforcement Accountability Database, JUSTICE/DOJ–022. The Department proposes to establish this system of records to promote new and strengthened practices in the hiring, promotion, and retention of law enforcement officers. On May 25, 2022, the President issued an Executive Order, Advancing Effective, Accountable Policing and Criminal Justice Practices to Enhance Public Trust and Public Safety (the “Executive Order”). Section 5 of the Executive Order directs the Attorney General to establish a National Law Enforcement Accountability Database (the “NLEAD”) documenting instances of law enforcement officer misconduct, commendations, and awards. The Attorney General shall also ensure that the NLEAD is consistent with all applicable laws, including the Privacy Act, and respects appropriate due process protections for law enforcement officers.

DATES: In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(4) and (11), this notice is effective upon publication, subject to a 30-day period in which to submit comments. Please submit any comments by January 2, 2024.

ADDRESSES: The public, OMB, and Congress are invited to submit any comments by mail to the United States Department of Justice, Office of Privacy and Civil Liberties, ATTN: Privacy Analyst, Two Constitution Square, 145 N St. NE, Suite 8W–300, Washington, DC 20530; by facsimile at 202–307–0693; or by email at privacy.compliance@usdoj.gov. To ensure proper handling, please reference the above CPCLO Order No. on your correspondence.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Brian Merrick, Deputy Director, Service Delivery Staff, United States Department of Justice, Justice Management Division, Two Constitution Square, 145 N St. NE, Suite 4W–202, Washington, DC 20530; Brian.Merrick@usdoj.gov, 202–514–0070.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In Executive Order 14074, the President declared a policy that strives to “strengthen public safety and the bonds of trust between law enforcement and the community and build a criminal justice system that respects the dignity and equality of all in America.” As explained in the Executive Order, one of the many ways to advance that policy is to “commit to new practices in law enforcement recruitment, hiring, promotion, and retention, as well as training, oversight, and accountability.” In furtherance of these goals, Section 5 of the Executive Order directs the Attorney General to establish the NLEAD for official records documenting law enforcement officer misconduct, commendations, and awards. Section 5 provides that the NLEAD include, to the maximum extent permitted by law, the following categories of records documenting: criminal convictions; suspension of a law enforcement officer’s enforcement authorities, such as de-certification; terminations; civil judgments related to official duties, including amounts if publicly available; resignations or retirements while under investigation for serious misconduct; and sustained complaints or records of disciplinary action based on findings of serious misconduct. The NLEAD shall also include official records documenting officer commendations and awards, as the Attorney General deems appropriate.

Pursuant to Section 5(e) of the Executive Order, the NLEAD shall be used, as appropriate and consistent with applicable law, in the hiring, job assignment, and promotion of Federal law enforcement officers, as well as in the screening of State, Tribal, local, and territorial law enforcement officers who participate in programs or activities controlled by Federal law enforcement agencies, such as joint task forces or international training and technical assistance programs, including programs managed by the Department of State and the DOJ. State, Tribal, local, and territorial law enforcement agencies are encouraged to contribute to and use the NLEAD in a manner consistent with applicable law.

The Department proposes to establish the NLEAD system of records to fulfill the mandate of the Executive Order and facilitate new and strengthened hiring practices while protecting the safety, privacy, and due process rights of law enforcement officers who may be identified in the NLEAD.

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(r), the Department has provided a report to OMB and Congress on this new system of records.

Dated: November 20, 2023.

Peter A. Winn,

Acting Chief Privacy and Civil Liberties Officer, United States Department of Justice.
