

are Permanent records and will be transferred to the National Archives at the time that related permanent records are transferred (DAA-GRS-2015-0001-0002).

- Committee Accountability Records
 - Records that document financial and ethics accountability, such as records documenting financial expenditures associated with the functioning of the committee and financial disclosure and conflict of interest documents. These are Temporary records that do not contain unique information of historical value and are destroyed or deleted when six years old or when no longer required for business purposes (DAA-GRS-2015-0001-0004).

- Non-substantive Committee Records
 - Records related to specific committees that are of an administrative nature or are duplicative of information maintained elsewhere. These are Temporary records to be destroyed when superseded, obsolete, no longer needed, or upon termination of the committee, whichever is sooner. (DAA-GRS-2015-0001-0005).

- Committee Management Records
 - Records created and/or maintained by Committee Management Officers (CMOs) and their staff related to the overall management of committees for an agency. These records may pertain to specific committees or to the committee management function in general. These are Temporary records to be destroyed when 3 years old, 3 years after submission of report, or 3 years after superseded or obsolete, as appropriate. Longer retention is authorized if required for business use. (DAA-GRS-2015-0001-0006).

The FCC disposes of the paper documents by shredding. The electronic records, files, and data are destroyed either by physical destruction of the electronic storage media or by erasure of the data.

ADMINISTRATIVE, TECHNICAL, AND PHYSICAL SAFEGUARDS:

1. FACA paper records documents, records, and files (except OGE Form 450 files) are maintained in file cabinets in the office suites of the DFO's Bureau or Office (B/O). These file cabinets are locked at the end of each business day. Access to each office suite is through a card-coded main door. Access to these files is restricted to the PERM supervisors and staff and to the DFO's authorized supervisors and staff in each Bureau or Office;

2. Paper copies of OGE Form 450 files, documents, and records are maintained in file cabinets in the OGC office suite.

These file cabinets are locked at the end of each business day. Access to the OGC OGC office suite is through a card-coded main door. Access to these files is restricted to OGC supervisors and staff; and

3. Access to non-public FACA electronic records, files, and data, which are housed in the FCC's computer network databases, is restricted to authorized PERM supervisors and staff; to the supervisors and staff in each DFO's Bureau/Office; to the OGC supervisors and staff for OGE Form 450 files and associated vetting documentation; and to the Information Technology (IT) staff and contractors, who maintain the FCC's computer network. Other FCC employees and contractors may be granted access only on a "need-to-know" basis. The records in the FCC's computer network are protected by the FCC's security protocols, which include controlled access, passwords, and other IT safety and security features.
