

“conclusive” court decision. The CIT’s February 18, 2025, judgment constitutes a final decision of the CIT that is not in harmony with Commerce’s Final Determination. Thus, this notice is published in fulfillment of the publication requirements of Timken.

Amended Final Determination

Because there is now a final court judgment, Commerce is amending its Final Determination with respect to Zinus Indonesia’s weighted-average dumping margin as follows:

Producer/exporter	Weighted average dumping margin (percent)
PT. Zinus Global Indonesia	0.00

Revocation of the Order

Pursuant to the CIT’s decision in PT. Zinus III affirming Commerce’s decisions as described above, Commerce is revoking the AD Order on mattresses from Indonesia pursuant to section 751(d) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.222(b)(2). As a result of this revocation, Commerce is discontinuing the current administrative review effective immediately and will not initiate any new administrative reviews of the AD Order.

Cash Deposit Requirements

Commerce will instruct U.S. Customs and Border Protection to discontinue the collection of cash deposits for estimated antidumping duties, effective February 28, 2025.

Pursuant to Timken, Hosiden,¹¹ and Diamond Sawblades, the suspension of all entries of mattresses from Indonesia within the scope of the AD Order entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption beginning on February 28, 2025, that remained unliquidated and are not deemed liquidated as of February 28, 2025, will continue until there is a “final and conclusive” court decision.

Similarly, the suspension of liquidation and cash deposits on all entries of mattresses of Zinus Indonesia, PT Ecos Jaya Indonesia (Ecos) and PT Grantec Jaya Indonesia (Grantec) subject to injunctions in litigation of the investigation and the first and second administrative review results will continue and be retained, respectively, until there is a “final and conclusive” court decision on the investigation and in accordance with the results of the respective litigations. For the entries that are currently being administratively suspended for the third administrative review (i.e., May 1, 2022 through April 30, 2023) for Zinus Indonesia, Ecos and Grantec, and any entries that entered between May 1, 2023 (i.e., the date after end of third administrative review period) and February 28, 2025, the suspension of liquidation and cash deposits will likewise continue and be retained, respectively, until there is a “final and conclusive” court decision on the investigation. Once there is a final and conclusive court decision on the investigation, Commerce will take further action in accordance with the results of the litigation.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On November 13, 2024, the U.S. Department of Commerce (Commerce) initiated less-than-fair-value (LTFV) investigations of imports of hard empty capsules from Brazil, China, India, and Vietnam.¹ Currently, the preliminary determinations of these investigations are due no later than April 2, 2025.

Postponement of Preliminary Determinations

Section 733(b)(1)(A) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), requires Commerce to issue the preliminary determination in an LTFV investigation within 140 days after the date on which Commerce initiated the investigation. However, section 733(c)(1)(A)(b)(1) of the Act permits Commerce to postpone the preliminary determination until no later than 190 days after the date on which Commerce initiated the investigation if: (A) the petitioner makes a timely request for a postponement; or (B) Commerce concludes that the parties concerned are cooperating, that the investigation is extraordinarily complicated, and that additional time is necessary to make a preliminary determination. Under 19 CFR 351.205(e), the petitioner must submit a request for postponement 25 days or more before the scheduled date of the preliminary determination and must state the reasons for the request. Commerce will grant the request unless it finds compelling reasons to deny the request.

On February 26, 2025, the petitioner² submitted a timely request that Commerce postpone the preliminary determinations in these LTFV investigations.³ The petitioner stated that it requests postponement in order to allow sufficient time to fully develop all aspects of the administrative records and so that Commerce can analyze forthcoming questionnaire responses, as necessary.⁴

For the reasons stated above and because there are no compelling reasons to deny the requests, Commerce, in accordance with section 733(c)(1)(A) of the Act, is postponing the deadline for the preliminary determinations in these investigations by 50 days (i.e., 190 days after the date on which these investigations were initiated). As a result Commerce will issue its preliminary determinations no later than May 22, 2025. In accordance with section 735(a)(1) of the Act and 19 CFR AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: The U.S. Department of Commerce (Commerce) finds that revocation of the countervailing duty (CVD) order on vertical metal file cabinets (file cabinets) from the People’s Republic of China (China) would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of countervailable subsidies at the levels indicated in the “Final Results of Sunset Review” section of this notice.

On December 26, 2024, Commerce notified the U.S. International Trade Commission that it did not receive an adequate substantive response from any respondent interested party.⁶ As a result, Commerce conducted an expedited (120-day) sunset review of the
