FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

46 CFR Part 501, 535, and 542

RIN 3072–AD04

[FMC–2025–0002]

Delegations of Authority and Descriptions of Organization Components

AGENCY: Federal Maritime Commission.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Federal Maritime Commission (Commission or FMC) is revising certain delegations of authority from the Commission, updating descriptions of organization components, and making minor related technical amendments. These revisions reflect re-organization of certain functions within the agency.

DATES: Effective June 20, 2025.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: David Eng, Secretary; Phone: (202) 523–5725; Email: Secretary@fmc.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Overview of Changes

In December 2024, the Commission brought the competition staff of the FMC’s Bureau of Trade Analysis and the competition staff of the Office of the General Counsel together under a new Competition Section within the Office of the General Counsel. This realignment enables the agency to have the economists and lawyers who make up our competition staff work together as one integrated unit. During this transition, the Commission also realigned the Bureau of Trade Analysis to emphasize its core function, which is to provide maritime supply chain analytics. These changes are reflected in revisions to 46 CFR 501.3, 501.12 and 501.17. Corresponding changes in part 535 are being made in 46 CFR 535.301(d), 535.302(d), 535.311(c), 535.501(b), 535.504(b), 535.606(a), 535.701(d) and (e)(2), 535.702(b), 535.703(c), 535.705(b), 535.802(e) and Appendix B to Part 535—Monitoring Report and Instructions to remove references to the Bureau of Trade Analysis. In association with this change, the FMC is also revising § 542.1(j)(2) to remove the reference to the Director of the Bureau of Trade Analysis. Parties required to file documented export policies with the Commission under § 542.1 will continue to submit these reports via the same email address, exportpolicy@fmc.gov.

Legal Authority

The Commission is authorized under 46 U.S.C. 46104(a) to delegate within the agency any of its duties or powers and under 46 U.S.C. 46105(a) to prescribe regulations to carry out its duties and powers. In addition, 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(1)(A) directs agencies to publish in the Federal Register descriptions of their central organization.

Rulemaking Analysis

Administrative Law Matters

This rule relates solely to agency organization, procedure, or practice. Accordingly, the Administrative Procedure Act (APA)’s provisions regarding notice of rulemaking and opportunity for public comment are not applicable. 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(A). The Commission finds that there is good cause to establish an effective date less than 30 days after publication of this amendment because this amendment does not affect the rights or obligations of non-agency parties, 5 U.S.C. 553(d). This amendment is therefore effective upon publication in the Federal Register. Because notice and comment are not required, the Regulatory Flexibility Act and the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act, 5 U.S.C. 601 et seq., are not applicable. This amendment does not contain any collection of information requirements as defined by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. See 5 CFR 1320.3(c).

Federal Register

Executive Order 12866

This action is limited to agency organization, management, and personnel matters and therefore is not a “regulation” or “rule” under Executive Order 12866 (Regulatory Planning and Review), section 3(d)(3). Accordingly, this action has not been reviewed by the Office of Management and Budget.

Executive Order 14192

This action is limited to agency organization, management, and personnel matters and therefore is not a “regulation” or “rule” under section 5(b) of Executive Order 14192 (Unleashing Prosperity Through Deregulation). Accordingly, sections 3 and 4 of Executive Order 14192 are not applicable to this action.

Congressional Review Act

The Congressional Review Act (CRA), codified at 5 U.S.C. 801 et seq., adopts the Administrative Procedure Act’s definition of a “rule” in 5 U.S.C. 551, subject to certain exclusions. See 5 U.S.C. 804(3). In particular, the CRA does not apply to rules relating to agency management and personnel and rules of agency organization, procedure, and practice that do not substantially affect the rights or obligations of non-agency parties. Id. This final rule relates to agency management and personnel as well as agency organization, procedures, and practices. Therefore, this final rule is not a “rule” under the CRA and is not subject to the CRA’s requirements.

Executive Order 12988 (Civil Justice Reform)

This rule meets the applicable standards in Executive Order 12988 (Civil Justice Reform) to minimize litigation, eliminate ambiguity, and reduce burden.

National Environmental Policy Act

This rule is an action involving personnel matters of the agency. It is therefore categorically excluded from additional review under 46 CFR 504.4(a)(28).
