

Daimler Vans explains that due to an oversight, a 1.10 reduction on each tire's maximum load rating was not applied before the overall maximum load rating of the tires for each axle was set. As a result, the sum of the maximum load ratings of the tires fitted to each axle (after being divided by 1.10) are less than the GAWR for the axle as specified on the vehicle certification label by 110 lbs. The 1.10 factor reduction due to the use of passenger tires on a van-truck, results effectively in the tires, per FMVSS 110 S4.2.2.2, falling short of covering the vehicle's GAWR which results in a 96.8% coverage rate (3307 lbs/3417 lbs) of covering the vehicle's GAWR.

Daimler Vans additionally notated that the Agency has previously granted petitions for inconsequential noncompliance involving similar inconsistencies involving tire maximum load ratings. The referenced granted petition involves passenger vehicles where the vehicle manufacturer had incorrectly overstated the maximum occupant and cargo weight on the Tire and Loading Information Label. In short, the Agency concluded that when the vehicle was loaded to the value listed on the placard, the specific tires installed on the vehicles were nonetheless technically capable of handling the overstated weight and cargo. It should, however, be noted that in the "similar granted petition," the maximum load values were either at or below the GAWR/GVWR for the subject vehicles.

VII. NHTSA's Decision: In consideration of the foregoing analysis, NHTSA finds that Daimler Vans has not met its burden of persuasion that the subject FMVSS No. 110 noncompliance at issue is inconsequential to motor vehicle safety.

Accordingly, Daimler Vans' petition is hereby denied and Daimler Vans is consequently obligated of providing notification of, and a free remedy for, that noncompliance under 49 U.S.C. 30118 and 30120.

Authority: (49 U.S.C. 30118, 30120: delegations of authority at 49 CFR 1.95 and 501.8)

Associate Administrator for Enforcement.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Under the PRA (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.), Federal agencies must obtain approval from the OMB for each collection of information that they conduct or sponsor.

"Collection of information" is defined in 44 U.S.C. 3502(3) and 5 CFR 1320.3(c) to include agency requests or requirements that members of the public submit reports, keep records, or provide information to a third party. OCC asks that OMB extend its approval of the collection in this notice.

Title: Regulation C—Home Mortgage Disclosure Act.

OMB Control No.: 1557-0345.

Type of Review: Regular review.

Abstract: The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau's (CFPB) Regulation

C,¹ which implements the Home Mortgage Disclosure Act (HMDA) ² requires certain depository and non-depository institutions (financial institutions) that make certain mortgage loans to collect, report, and disclose data about originations and purchases of mortgage loans as well as data about loan applications that do not result in originations. HMDA requires the generation of loan data that can be used to: (1) help determine whether depository and non-depository institutions are serving the housing needs of their communities; (2) assist public officials in distributing public-sector investments so as to attract private investment to areas where it is needed; and (3) assist in identifying possible discriminatory lending patterns and enforcing anti-discrimination statutes.

Twelve CFR 1003.5 requires the disclosure and reporting of data on mortgage loans. Section 1003.5(a)(1)(i) provides that by March 1 following the calendar year for which data are collected and recorded, a financial institution must submit its annual loan/application register in electronic format to the appropriate Federal agency at the address identified by such agency. An authorized representative of the financial institution with knowledge of the data submitted must certify to the accuracy and completeness of data submitted. The financial institution must retain a copy of its annual loan/application register for at least three years.

Section 1003.5(a)(1)(ii) provides that within 60 calendar days after the end of each calendar quarter except the fourth quarter, a financial institution that reported for the preceding calendar year at least 60,000 covered loans and applications, combined, excluding purchased covered loans, shall submit to the appropriate Federal agency its loan/application register containing all data required to be recorded for that quarter pursuant to § 1003.4(f). The financial institution shall submit its quarterly loan/application register pursuant to § 1003.5(a)(1)(ii) in electronic format at the address identified by the appropriate Federal agency for the institution.

Under section 1003.5(a)(2), a financial institution that is a subsidiary of a bank or savings association must complete a separate loan/application register. The subsidiary must submit the loan/application register, directly or through its parent, to the appropriate Federal agency for the subsidiary's parent at the address identified by the agency.

Section 1003.5(b)(1) provides that the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council (FFIEC) will make available a disclosure statement based on the data each financial institution submits for the preceding calendar year.

Section 1003.5(b)(2) provides that no later than three business days after receiving notice from the FFIEC that a financial institution's disclosure statement is available, the financial institution must make available to the public upon request at its home office, and each branch office physically located in each Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA) and each Metropolitan Division (MD), a written notice that clearly conveys that the institution's disclosure statement may be obtained on the CFPB's website. A financial institution must make this notice available for a period of three years.

Section 1003.5(c)(1) provides that a financial institution must make available to the public upon request at its home office, and each branch office physically located in each MSA and each MD, a written notice that clearly conveys that the institution's loan/application register, as modified by the CFPB to protect applicant and borrower privacy, may be obtained on the CFPB's website. A financial institution shall make available the notice following the calendar year for which the data are collected. A financial institution must make the notice available to the public for a period of five years.

Section 1003.5(d)(2) provides that a financial institution may make available to the public, at its discretion its disclosure statement or its loan/application register, as modified by the CFPB to protect applicant and borrower privacy.

Section 1003.5(e) provides that a financial institution must post a general notice about the availability of its HMDA data in the lobby of its home office and of each branch office physically located in each MSA and each MD. This notice must clearly convey that the institution's HMDA data is available on the CFPB's website.

Affected Public: Businesses or other for-profit.

Burden Estimates:

Estimated Number of Respondents: 437.

Estimated Annual Burden: 609,100 hours.

Frequency of Response: On occasion.

Comments: On April 21, 2022, the OCC published a 60-day notice for this information collection, 87 FR 23911. No comments were received. Comments continue to be solicited on:

(a) Whether the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the OCC, including whether the information has practical utility;

(b) The accuracy of the OCC's estimate of the information collection burden;

(c) Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected;

(d) Ways to minimize the burden of the collection on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology; and

(e) Estimates of capital or start-up costs and costs of operation, maintenance, and purchase of services to provide information.
